DRESS CODE OVERVIEW
All Students are expected to dress and groom themselves in a way that reflects neatness, cleanliness, moderation and appropriateness for school.

DRESS CODE VIOLATIONS
When students are cited for a dress code violation, they will be counseled by the teacher and the parent will be contacted. We trust that you will support and cooperate with this policy in order to maintain a level of school-wide consistency.

The School Board of Palm Beach County is legally and ethically responsible for the establishment of classroom and campus environments that are conducive to a safe, orderly, and productive educational program. The health, safety, and welfare of each student can be enhanced through the implementation of dress standards for students. All schools shall develop gender neutral dress codes or uniform guidelines. The dress codes or uniform guidelines should be developed under the direction of the school principal with input from students, staff, parents, and the School Advisory Council (SAC).

Discipline as a result of the enforcement of a student dress code violation is the responsibility of the principal or the principal designee.

“Students have a responsibility to dress neatly, appropriately, and to be clean and well groomed.”

BOCA RATON DRESS CODE

All students in grades Kindergarten through Grade 5 shall adhere to this dress code so to strengthen the learning environment for classroom instruction and academic performance; prevent disruption; increase the atmosphere for school pride and personal appearance; and enhance the image of students and the school in the Boca Raton community.
